regard; but now that Fortune has for a while abandoned our House, he is assuredly its greatest enemy. Stick to my advice. I know more than do all those jn'ople,.

If news should come of a lost battle and of my death, you would receive it More my minister?. Sent! the Km-press and King of Rome to lUmixmiilet; order the. Senate the Council of State, and all the troop to rally on the Loire; leave in Paris the Prefect, or an Intjterial Cwnmii-sioncr, or a Mayor, Never let the Kmpre or the King of Rome fall into the hiind* of the enemy, I feel that I had rather my non were strangled than .see him brought up at Vienna an an Austrian prmoe; am! I have a high enough opinion of the Kmpre^s to U'Ueve thnt she fhiuki the same way, BUM mueh m n woman awl 11 mother eat*. I have never awn Antlnmaquf | >erforme«i without ing for the fate of A»tya«nx Mirvivinjj hin HOUGHS without thinking tfe happine for him not t«» nttrvive father. You don't know the Frrtn-h fmtion: the of what might oct»ur during these gremt events »re i«eal» culahlct,

(To I)aun\) The army in dying of starvation, idthmtgb we have marked our rtmte i« mum»<< ftml in httMnl tit order to get ftKxi. And jrt if 1 wrrr t*> err«lit ymirn*' ports, the army i« fed. The Duke «f itrtUmtt hiw itittthing; General (ientrci hiw nothings tlw* *-nv«lry u{ the (ttiiirt! w dying of hunger.

Oth, (To S«vary.) Srnd twenty |iirkrtt ifriwlartiir At»4 twenty Parw griuiarnira tu arrmt the itrAKjflrrtf •! t* decimate tlwtm, that is t« «h«it tute m trn.

I aad to wwk bjuti Utmugh the ttiglit ml wa< unat4»